A claim for equality of material position can be met only by a government with totalitarian powers. – Friedrich Hayek

Fascism is a form of government, in which the country is considered more important than any one person, group, liberty, or provision. A country under this kind of government is usually run by a person called a leader, who has the right of total control over the government and people. Fascist leadership might also be similar to an oligarchy, such as in Italy where the fascist party was ruled by its “grand council” from 1922 until the end of World War Two.
